Hello Folks,

Hope you all have not missed our 'THE HUB' for too long!!!! A peak season of summer has suddenly captured here and we have been hit by this extremely humid climate of Summer.....wherein at this moment, we can only think of beaches, resorts, hill stations to beat the heat off.....and ya how can we miss...the Alphonso!!!!...the king of all fruits.

Friends....well our new website awaits your immediate attention....it exemplify the growth and expansion of First Flight. This growth comes in as an achievement not only to the organization but to its First Flight family members too. And it further escalates that FFCL has craved a niche to be second to none when it comes to quality and service standards to all the esteemed customers.a quality service....with a difference! Our cover page depicts the same.

Hardwork and dedication is the key mantra of success in life. With this quality added by a few drops of essence i.e optimism, an individual can easily achieve all his/ her aspirations and can face all the odds in life by way of obstacles or disappointments in his / her stride.

Ye Hai Cricket Meri Jaan!!!!!!!!!!!!.....ya its huge disappointments to all the cricket fans...as we cannot see our Indian team competing for the World Cup 2007!!!. As most of the advertisement endorsements of all the cricketers has been chucked off.....stating them to be unfit to play for the Indian Team on the other hands there are allegations, controversies, match-fixing.....these are all debatable issues. Where does this all lead to? Can our new talents who are aspiring to be cricketer focus on cricket ? or should the same be diverted in some other recreational activities. Point to ponder!

Well..... hopefully till the next world cup we can hope the Indian Cricket Team atleast manages to reach the super eight slot!!!!!! Jokes apart.....this is the time our cricketer needs the required support and a positive approach.....coz its not that our team has always been in the losing end but there are some memorable and wonderful matches been won on their credits too.....we can really hope that our Indian Tigers strikes back again with the same spirits and enthusiasm and make our country proud with a vigour and dynamism.

So who's gonna take the world cup this time.....any guesses....Australia, south Africa, or New Zealand !!!!!!! So ultimately we would say that let the best team win and take the Cup ...after all Jo Jeeta Wohi Sikander!!!!!!!!!!.

Well....check out for some great happenings of our network, an exclusive interview await your attention too!. Well a big round of applause to all the team members who has been actively contributing their best for 'THE HUB' whether its Hindi section, drawings, regional or active participations for the quizFriends, all I can say thatits is indeed awesome!. With this zeal, and confidence all we can hope that 'THE HUB' can only go miles after miles.... ahead!

Enjoy Reading!
